

Conceptual View of Legitimate Interconnections of AISs Based on Common Accredited Security Parameters*

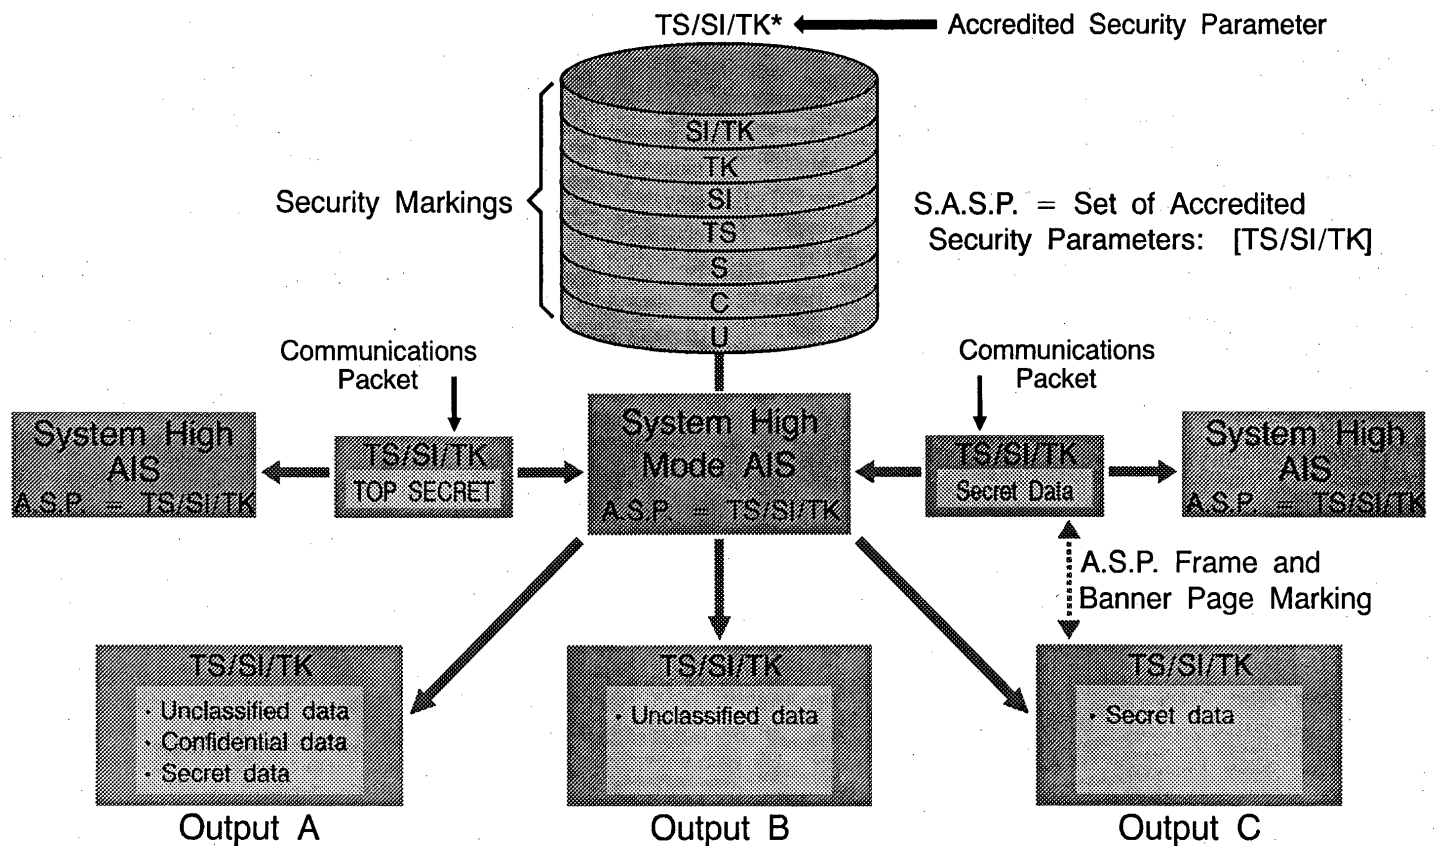

* Assumes need-to-know (i.e., discretionary access) controls also enforced in all AISs except the dedicated mode AIS

Conceptual View of Legitimate Interconnections of AISs Via a Separately Accredited Network Based on Common Accredited Security Parameters

Conceptual View of the 'Framing' Process Required When Printing Output or Transmitting Data

* The notation TS/SI/TK represents the highest classification and most restrictive intelligence that the AIS has been accredited to process (i.e., TOP SECRET SI and TK data).

Logical View of Accreditation Range Framing Process Required When Printing Output or Transmitting Data

